Library Regulations.

SECTION 5.—No person shall draw from, or have in his or her possession outside the Library, more than one book at any one time, except where a work is in two or more volumes, when two consecutive volumes may be taken out by the same person.

SEC. 6.—No person shall keep any book from the Library for a longer space than two weeks.

SEC. 7.—Books of recent purchase, labeled "Seven-Day Book," cannot be retained more than one week, and cannot be renewed.

SEC. 8.—The cost of any book must be paid into the Treasurer's hands by the person losing the same, or rendering it worthless by careless usage, within twenty days after such person is notified by the Secretary of the amount due.

SEC. 10.—No person under ten years of age will be permitted to draw books from the Library.

SEC. 11.—Any wilful violation of these Regulations, or failure to pay fines or penalties imposed upon a person by virtue of an ordinance of the Town relating to the regulation of Library matters, will be held to justify the Directors in debarring a person from the use of the Library, directly or indirectly.

SEC. 12.—A fine of ten cents shall be imposed for effacing Library marks or adding thereto.

NOTICE.—The rules of the Library also prohibit all conversation in the Library, and now that its patrons have been furnished with a Catalogue they will be expected to call for books by their numbers, and when supplied, to leave the Library to make room for others, unless they desire to consult reference books.

Turning down the pages, writing upon the fly leaves or margin of books, or annotating or marking the same in any way, will subject the offender to the penalties of Section 8 of the Library Regulations and Section 2 of the Corporation ordinance.

Ordinance.

1st.—Any person who fails to return a book, or books, to the Public Library of this town within the time prescribed by the Regulations of the Board of Library Directors of said Library, shall forfeit to and pay to the Librarian, for the use of said Library, the sum of ten cents per week for each book for each and every week that the same shall be retained by such person after the week upon which it should have been returned.
